WRITING (35 minutes)

A national student magazine has asked you to write an article on how young people might choose a career. Write a short article for the magazine.

The article must be entitled “The dangers of being too ambitious”. Write an article in 130-150 words of your own in an appropriate style.

Remember to cover the following points:

- What are the steps you might take in choosing a career?
- What might be the problems of ambitious people?
- Involve the reader, use at least two of these phrases

Just imagine...

Have you ever...?

How would you feel if...?

Are you one of those people who ...?

If the answer is ..., you should...

What would life be like if...

- Use at least two of these adverbs

absolutely approximately importantly mainly surprisingly

worryingly

- Finish your article with a statement “So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide”.

Note! The words of the title do not count.

The dangers of being too ambitious

Are you one of those people who are too ambitious and want to start own career? If the answer is yes, you should read this article.

In this article I will mainly discuss about steps needed to choose a career and which problems will face the ones who are too ambitious.

When you are choosing your career path, it is important to follow these steps.

First step will be to become sure if chosen career matches with your interests and hobbies.

Second step will be to think about your goals you want to achieve. Don't aim too high. Your goals should be achievable.

Third step will be to plan your path to a goal. The plan should consist of your time managing and prioritising steps in the plan.

But what if you were too ambitious and setted an unachievable goal? Well, there is nothing to do and you just wasted your time.

So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide.
