WRITING (35 minutes)

A national student magazine has asked you to write an article on how young people might choose a career. Write a short article for the magazine.

The article must be entitled “The dangers of being too ambitious”. Write an article in 130-150 words of your own in an appropriate style.

Remember to cover the following points:

- What are the steps you might take in choosing a career?
- What might be the problems of ambitious people?
- Involve the reader, use at least two of these phrases

Just imagine...

Have you ever...?

How would you feel if ...?

Are you one of those people who ...?

If the answer is ..., you should....

What would life be like if...

- Use at least two of these adverbs

absolutely approximately importantly mainly surprisingly

worryingly

- Finish your article with a statement “So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide”.

Note! The words of the title do not count.

The dangers of being too ambitious

Today a lot of teenagers are not sure what they want to do for a living. Are you one of those people? If the answer is yes, you should read this article. First of all, there are some steps you might take in choosing a career.

For example you should mark what subjects you like the most. You can't be a doctor if you don't like biology. Secondly, you should do some tests that can recommend you jobs. And thirdly you absolutely should talk to your friends and family. Surprisingly they know you better than you. Don't forget about being ambitious and confident. But there are the problems of ambitious people as well. Some ambitious and powerful people can be betrayed by their envy friends.

In conclusion I would like to say that it is important to choose right career. So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide.
