WRITING

Recently, the plans of redesigning Regent court into a food quarter have been approved. That, however, has resulted in people living near ~~that~~^{the} area to ~~objec~~ object to these plans. A meeting was called to discuss possible ways to resolve this conflict. This report covers the meeting and the ideas presented by the council.

In general, ~~more people~~ there were more people that liked the idea than people who objected to it. But that amount is still a lot, and both sides have good arguments. The arguments against the plans are about how there will be a ~~lot~~ lot of people at the quarter at late hours, resulting in noise ~~for~~ for those who want to go to sleep. But other people argue that the noise won't be as bad as others think it will, and also that there are no other food quarters anywhere near the area.

The ~~prediction~~ predictions have concluded that the plans will not get cancelled, and that people who were against would be mad for some time, but after that everything ~~will~~ will be back to normal, with people dealing with the problems by themselves. But people recommend to move the quarter to a different location, where it would still be ~~acesible~~ accessible and cause less discomfort for the people.

Оценочные баллы: максимальный – 10 баллов; фактический – 8 баллов.
