WRITING (35 minutes)

A national student magazine has asked you to write an article on how young people might choose a career. Write a short article for the magazine.

The article must be entitled “The dangers of being too ambitious”. Write an article in 130-150 words of your own in an appropriate style.

Remember to cover the following points:

- What are the steps you might take in choosing a career?
- What might be the problems of ambitious people?
- Involve the reader, use at least two of these phrases

Have you ever...?

How would you feel if...?

Are you one of those people who ...?

If the answer is ..., you should....

What would life be like if ..

- Use at least two of these adverbs

absolutely

approximately importantly mainly

surprisingly

worryingly

- Finish your article with a statement “So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide”.

Note! The words of the title do not count.

The dangers of being too ambitious

Well, why being too ambitious can cause some problems? Some people think that if they feel confident about their future, it will be enough. Are you one of those people who have the same opinion? If the answer is yes, you should change your mind. Just imagine, <sup>absolutely</sup> every person must finish ~~the~~ a school, graduate an university which can give you all necessary skills to become a successful person. But you need to work hard to get this education and the confidence is not enough. Mainly, problems of ~~too~~ ambitious people are finding a job and ~~lack~~ of opportunities. So, good la-

They can try to find their place in this world but there is almos no sense if they do not have at least basic skills which students can get in university. So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide.
