WRITING

Anna had a very special reason for getting up early the next day, so she set the alarm clock for 5 am. She was going to take part in a beach cleaning.

In the morning, Anna and other volunteers went on a beach. Everyone wore special gloves and shoes. It was warm but windy.

"We will start here," ~~the~~<sup>the</sup> leader said and they began to work. The amount of trash was terrible. Plastic bottles and glass flated in the sea. Anna needed to clean everything ~~because~~ because it could harm the environment. People in her group were disgusted by humans' behavior. They wondered how careless one should be to ruin our planet like that. After a couple of hours they returned to where they started. Anna put the trash piles in the car so they could recycle it.

"Nice job! Our next meeting will be in a week," Her friend told. Anna got in the car and drove home.

It is good that people like Anna and her friends exist. But we always should think about our decisions on what we do. We must save our planet for the future generation.

Or do we want to be the ones who will destroy our home?
