WRITING (35 minutes)

A national student magazine has asked you to write an article on how young people might choose a career. Write a short article for the magazine.

The article must be entitled “The dangers of being too ambitious”. Write an article in 130-150 words of your own in an appropriate style.

Remember to cover the following points:

- What are the steps you might take in choosing a career?
- What might be the problems of ambitious people?
- Involve the reader, use at least two of these phrases

Just imagine...

Have you ever...?

How would you feel if...?

Are you one of those people who ...?

If the answer is ..., you should....

What would life be like if ..

- Use at least two of these adverbs absolutely approximately importantly mainly surprisingly worryingly

- Finish your article with a statement “So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide”.

Note! The words of the title do not count.

The dangers of being too ambitious

Usually, it is quite hard for young people to decide what career they should choose. A lot of young adults and teenagers don't have an idea who they want to be. Have you ever been in this situation? If the answer is yes, in my opinion, you firstly should understand what is more important to you: your hobbies and interests, money, or things you are good at. But not surprisingly, young people can't choose what they prioritize, and that leads ~~to~~^{to} being too ambitious or not ambitious at all, which makes the choice of the career even harder.

Remember, you should always be absolutely aware of your capabilities and limits, and there will be much less problems. No matter what,
I wish you good luck in your future career, whatever you choose
