WRITING (35 minutes)

A national student magazine has asked you to write an article on how young people might choose a career. Write a short article for the magazine.

The article must be entitled “The dangers of being too ambitious”. Write an article in 130-150 words of your own in an appropriate style.

Remember to cover the following points:

- What are the steps you might take in choosing a career?
- What might be the problems of ambitious people?
- Involve the reader, use at least two of these phrases

Just imagine...

Have you ever...?

How would you feel if ...?

Are you one of those people who ...?

If the answer is ..., you should....

What would life be like if...

- Use at least two of these adverbs

absolutely

approximately importantly mainly surprisingly

worryingly

- Finish your article with a statement “So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide”.

Note! The words of the title do not count.

The dangers of being too ambitious

Have you ever wanted to get a job of your dream? I think yes. It isn't surprisingly because ~~every~~ everyone wishes best for himself. But what if you wish too much for yourselves? what is the danger of being ambitious?

Are you one of those people who try to reach success despite of people's opinion or advice?

Do you think this type of achievement is right? Absolutely not, I suppose.

On the one hand, when you're sure in ~~your~~ yourselves you can overcome many difficulties. On the other hand, sometimes it would be better to look at ~~the~~ situation "from the side" and listen to people's advice. When you can't do something but still trying to do, you're just wasting your time.
It's importantly to learn who you are. Don't come up only with your wishes and ambitions, use your mind fool!

So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide.
