A national student magazine has asked you to write an article on how young people might choose a career. Write a short article for the magazine.

The article must be entitled “The dangers of being too ambitious”. Write an article in 130-150 words of your own in an appropriate style.

Remember to cover the following points:

- What are the steps you might take in choosing a career?
- What might be the problems of ambitious people?
- Involve the reader, use at least two of these phrases

Just imagine...

Have you ever...?

How would you feel if...?

Are you one of those people who ...?

If the answer is ..., you should....

What would life be like if...

- Use at least two of these adverbs

absolutely approximately importantly mainly surprisingly

worryingly

- Finish your article with a statement “So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide”.

Note! The words of the title do not count.

The dangers of being too ambitious

It seems like nowadays one of the most common problems for young people is choosing their future job. Are you one of those people who are willing to find themselves and choose their future career? Then this article might help you.

First of all, you absolutely should do some steps in order to find at least a field that you are attracted to. Do you like science? Maybe math? You need to find out. So, you should try doing a special test, you can find a lot of them on the internet. Then, speak to a more experienced person that already went through this tough choice. Maybe you should speak to your teacher and school psychologist since you are not the first student they graduate. I would offer you to take part in different college programmes that are provided for you to try out. Be honest and realistic with yourself, being ambitious is good but not too ambitious.

The problem of ambitious people is that they set too high expectations. So when some kind of an unexpected problem occurs, ambitious person tends to lose hope and motivations, mainly because they expect too much from themselves and rely on luck too much. Would you call yourself an ambitious person? If the answer is yes, then you should pay more attention to your abilities and be more realistic. Then you will be able to choose your future job wisely. So good luck in your future career, whatever you decide.
