WRITING

There are some plans to redesign Regent Court to be a late-night food quarter. The aim of this report is to describe the present situation connected with these plans and to provide general information about the recent town council meeting. As requested, this report contains my recommendations and suggestions about the possible development of the situation.

Let me start with analysing the present situation. Plans to establish the food quarter have been accepted despite the objections by people living in the city. As a result, the town council meeting was held in order to solve recently appeared disputes. There were some ^{questions} changes discussed and local people were given the information about the food quarter.

Undoubtedly, these changes have been for the better because Regent Court is quite a deprived place, which has to be replaced with something new and modern. Besides, this place ~~pr~~ will give local people new workplaces to take and they will have an opportunity to eat with a ^{certain} discount. As for the arguments against this place, I would highlight the fact that there can be ^{excessive} some noise that can disturb local people and also there might be a pervasive smell of food.

Speaking of the future, I suggest that this situation might be solved peacefully. If local people agree to certain conditions, they will be provided with extra boons. My recommendation is to listen to local people's concern and demands and to satisfy them so that ~~there will be~~ the agreement will be reached.
