WRITING (35 minutes)

A national student magazine has asked you to write an article on how young people might choose a career. Write a short article for the magazine.

The article must be entitled “The dangers of being too ambitious”. Write an article in 130-150 words of your own in an appropriate style.

Remember to cover the following points:

- What are the steps you might take in choosing a career?
- What might be the problems of ambitious people?
- Involve the reader, use at least two of these phrases

Just imagine...

Have you ever...?

How would you feel if...?

Are you one of those people who ...?

If the answer is ..., you should....

What would life be like if...

- Use at least two of these adverbs

absolutely approximately importantly mainly surprisingly worryingly

- Finish your article with a statement “So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide”.

Note! The words of the title do not count.

The dangers of being too ambitious

Many people think that being too ambitious absolutely normal. It is a great way to achieve whatever you want. However, I think being too ambitious is a rather bad idea because after the fail you can overthink yourself. How would you feel if you failed your goal? At least, have you ever feel confidence about your future career? So, if you are one of those people, you should find hobbies that can help feel you better. Then, think about university or college what you want to choose for your future career. Then, you should not think about failure and work hard for your best future. Surprisingly, because of the last step a few people think that they are perfect and can achieve anything. Of course they can but they should check great and weak sides of their personality and study new things. Anyone can do anything. So, good luck in your future career, whatever you decide.
